 Magnificat #12.00 Magnificat & Nunc Dimittis was recorded to explore the breadth of imagination with which composers have approached the texts, which have been sung in Christian worship for over 1000 years.

Novello presents a setting of the Nunc Dimittis in Latin for SSAATTBB Choir, A Cappella. Although written for Richard Terry in 1915, the first concert performance of this work was given in June 1974. Desmond Ratcliffe has prepared a keyboard reduction for rehearsal purposes only.

This volume contains the complete, original sheet music for Charles V. Stanford's "Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis," a classical music composition in B-flat major for voice and organ. Presented clearly and with wide margins for annotations or notes, this volume will appeal to classical music lovers and is not to be missed by those with an interest in learning and playing Stanford's musical masterpieces. Sir Charles Villiers Stanford (1852 - 1924) was an Irish composer, conductor, and teacher of music. He was educated at the University of Cambridge and continued his studies in Berlin and Leipzig. He was a very influential composer, responsible for making Cambridge University Musical Society an internationally-acclaimed organisation. Stanford was also a profuse composer, producing a large corpus of work in many genres; however, he is perhaps best remembered for his Anglican choral works for church performance. Many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive. We are republishing this volume now in a modern, high-quality edition complete with a specially
